7 §821.5. Employment Status: Employee or Independent Contractor.

8 The Commission adopts the following form, Form C-8, as its official guideline for use in 9 determining employment status.
10

EMPLOYMENT STATUS – A COMPARATIVE APPROACH

---

Under the common law test, a worker is an employee if the purchaser of that worker's service has the right to direct or control the worker, both as to the final results and as to the details of when, where, and how the work is done. Control need not actually be exercised; rather, if the service recipient has the right to control, employment may be shown.

Depending upon the type of business and the services performed, not all 20 common law factors may apply. In addition, the weight assigned to a specific factor may vary depending on the facts of the case.

If an employment relationship exists, it does not matter that the employee is called something different, such as agent, contract laborer, subcontractor, or independent contractor.

1. INSTRUCTIONS:

An Employee receives instructions about when, where and how the work is to be performed.

An Independent Contractor does the job his or her own way with few, if any, instructions as to the details or methods of the work.

2. TRAINING:

Employees are often trained by a more experienced employee or are required to attend meetings or take training courses.

An Independent Contractor uses his or her own methods and thus need not receive training from the purchaser of those services.

3. INTEGRATION:

---

11. ORAL OR WRITTEN REPORTS:

An Employee may be required to submit regular oral or written reports about the work in progress.

An Independent Contractor is usually not required to submit regular oral or written reports about the work in progress.

12. PAYMENT BY THE HOUR, WEEK OR MONTH:

An Employee is typically paid by the employer in regular amounts at stated intervals, such as by the hour or week.

An Independent Contractor is normally paid by the job, either a negotiated flat rate or upon submission of a bid.

13. PAYMENT OF BUSINESS & TRAVEL EXPENSE:

Services of an Employee are usually merged into the firm's overall operation; the firm's success depends on those Employee services.

An Independent Contractor's services are usually separate from the client's business and are not integrated or merged into it.

4. SERVICES RENDERED PERSONALLY:

An Employee's services must be rendered personally; Employees do not hire their own substitutes or delegate work to them.

A true Independent Contractor is able to assign another to do the job in his or her place and need not perform services personally.

5. HIRING, SUPERVISING & PAYING HELPERS:

An Employee may act as a foreman for the employer but, if so, helpers are paid with the employer's funds.

Independent Contractors select, hire, pay and supervise any helpers used and are responsible for the results of the helpers' labor.

6. CONTINUING RELATIONSHIP:

An Employee often continues to work for the same employer month after month or year after year.

An Independent Contractor is usually hired to do one job of limited or indefinite duration and has no expectation of continuing work.

7. SET HOURS OF WORK:

An Employee may work "on call" or during hours and days as set by the employer.

A true Independent Contractor is the master of his or her own time and works the days and hours he or she chooses.

An Employee's business and travel expenses are either paid directly or reimbursed by the employer.

Independent Contractors normally pay all of their own business and travel expenses without reimbursement.

14. FURNISHING TOOLS & EQUIPMENT:

Employees are furnished all necessary tools, materials and equipment by their employer.

An Independent Contractor ordinarily provides all of the tools and equipment necessary to complete the job.

---

15. SIGNIFICANT INVESTMENT:

An Employee generally has little or no investment in the business. Instead, an Employee is economically dependent on the employer.

True Independent Contractors usually have a substantial financial investment in their independent business.

16. REALIZE PROFIT OR LOSS:

An Employee does not ordinarily realize a profit or loss in the business. Rather, Employees are paid for services rendered.

An Independent Contractor can either realize a profit or suffer a loss depending on the management of expenses and revenues.

17. WORKING FOR MORE THAN ONE FIRM AT A TIME:

An Employee ordinarily works for one employer at a time and may be prohibited from joining a competitor.

An Independent Contractor often works for more than one client or firm at the same time and is not subject to a non-competition rule.

8. FULL TIME REQUIRED:

An Employee ordinarily devotes full-time service to the employer, or the employer may have a priority on the Employee's time.

A true Independent Contractor cannot be required to devote full-time service to one firm exclusively.

9. LOCATION WHERE SERVICES PERFORMED:

Employment is indicated if the employer has the right to mandate where services are performed

Independent Contractors ordinarily work where they choose. The workplace may be away from the client's premises.

10. ORDER OR SEQUENCE SET:

---

An Employee performs services in the order or sequence set by the employer. This shows control by the employer.

A true Independent Contractor is concerned only with the finished product and sets his or her own order or sequence of work.

§821.6. Wage Claims Involving Minimum Wage or Overtime.

- (a) The Commission shall consider any applicable minimum wage and overtime requirement in determining if wages are due and unpaid.
- (b) In determining an employee's entitlement to federal minimum wage or overtime, the Commission shall look to the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) of 1938 as amended, 29 U.S.C. 201 et seq., and the regulations promulgated by the United States Department of Labor thereunder. In determining an employee's entitlement to state minimum wage, the Commission shall look to the Texas Minimum Wage Act, located at Texas Labor Code, Chapter 62.

The provisions of this §821.6 adopted to be effective June 1, 1998, 23 TexReg 5732

18. MAKING SERVICE AVAILABLE TO THE PUBLIC:

An Employee does not make his or her services available to the public except through the employer's company.

An Independent Contractor may advertise, carry business cards, hang out a shingle or hold a separate business license.

19. RIGHT TO DISCHARGE WITHOUT LIABILITY:

---

An Employee can be discharged at any time without liability on the employer's part.

If the work meets the contract terms, an Independent Contractor cannot be fired without liability for breach of contract.

20. RIGHT TO QUIT WITHOUT LIABILITY:

An Employee may quit work at any time without liability on the Employee's part.

An Independent Contractor is legally responsible for job completion and, on quitting, becomes liable for breach of contract.

6 For purposes of posting notices indicating an employer's paydays, electronic posting is

14 SUBCHAPTER B. PAYMENT OF WAGES
15

16 §821.21. Complete and Unconditional Payment of Wages.
17

18 (a) An employer has paid an employee's wages for purposes of the Act if the employer
19 has delivered the wages to the employee:

20
21 (1) in a form authorized by §61.016 of the Act; and 22

23 (2) by a method authorized by §61.017 of the Act.
24

25 (b) An employer has not paid an employee's wages for purposes of the Act if the 26 employee has received the wages subject to a third party claim because:

27
28 (1) the paycheck has been dishonored due to insufficient funds, a stop-payment
29 order or any other reason attributable to the employer;
30

31 (2) the employer has caused a direct deposit of the wages to be reversed; or 32

33 (3) the employer has taken other similar action to undo the payment of wages.
34

35 The provisions of this §821.21 adopted to be effective June 1, 1998, 23 TexReg 5732
36

37 Return to Table of Contents
38

39 §821.22. Payment Other Than on Payday.
40

41 (a) For purposes of §61.013 of the Act, the Commission interprets "another regular 42 business day" to mean any regular business day, which is designated as being such 43 within the customary practice of the employer, following the employer's designated 44 payday.
45

- 1 (b) When an employee leaves employment other than by discharge on a payday,
2 payment of wages in full will be due the following scheduled payday. The
3 Commission shall consider "discharge" as dismissal or release from employment
4 initiated by the employer including, but not limited to, layoff.
5

6 The provisions of this §821.22 adopted to be effective June 1, 1998, 23 TexReg 5732

9

10 §821.25. Fringe Benefits.
11

- 12 (a) For purposes of §61.001(7)(B) of the Act, vacation pay and sick leave pay are 13 payable to an employee upon separation from employment only if a written 14 agreement with the employer or a written policy of the employer specifically
15 provides for payment.
16
- 17 (b) For purposes of §61.001(7)(B) of the Act, severance pay is payment by an employer 18 to an employee beyond the employee's wages on termination of employment, based 19 on the employee's prior service. Severance pay does not include payments for 20 liquidated damages, payments in exchange for a release of claims, or payments made
21 because of a lack of notice of separation.
22
- 23 (c) For purposes of §61.001(7)(B) of the Act, the sale of an employer's business is a 24 termination of employment with all of the employer's employees. At the time of 25 termination, the employer becomes liable for the payment of vacation pay, holiday
26 pay, sick leave pay, parental leave pay, or severance pay if owed pursuant to a
27 written agreement or written policy between the employer and its employees.
28
- 29 (d) For purposes of §61.001(7)(B) of the Act, expense reimbursements paid to 30 employees are not wages. Expense reimbursements are payments to the employee
31 for costs expended by the employee directly related to the employer's business.
32
- 33 (e) Absent the inclusion of definitions of terms in a written agreement with the employer
34 or under a written policy of the employer, a term will be given its ordinary meaning 35 unless a party establishes that it is defined in another way.
36
- 37 (f) For purposes of §61.001(7)(B) of the Act, accrued leave time of an employee shall 38 carry over to subsequent years only if a written agreement with the employer or a
39 written policy of the employer specifically provides for it.
40
- 41 (g) For purposes of §61.001(7)(B) of the Act, paid time off (PTO) or paid days off
42 (PDO) are wages unless the employer's written policy defines PTO or PDO as 43 something other than a combination of vacation pay, holiday pay, sick leave pay,
44 parental leave pay, or severance pay. PTO or PDO is payable to an employee upon 45 separation from employment only if a written agreement with the employer or a 46 written policy of the employer specifically provides for payment.

7 §821.26. Commissions or Bonuses.

8
9 (a) For purposes of §61.015 of the Act:

10
11 (1) Commissions or bonuses are earned when the employee has met all the 12 required conditions set forth in the applicable agreement with the employer.
13 To change an agreement, there must be prior notice as to the nature and 14 effective date of the changes. Changes to written agreements shall be in 15 writing.

16
17 (2) Commissions or bonuses are due to be paid, in a timely manner, according to 18 the terms specified in an agreement between an employer and an employee.
19 The terms should specify the time intervals or circumstances (or combinations 20 thereof) that would cause commissions or bonuses to become payable, such as,
21 but not limited to, weekly, monthly, quarterly, when sales transactions are 22 recorded, upon buyer's remittance, etc.

23
24 (b) Unless otherwise agreed, the employer shall pay, after separation, commissions or 25 bonuses earned as of the time of separation.

26
27 (c) Commissions or bonuses due after separation from employment are payable based on 28 the routine or practice specified in the agreement when the employee was employed,
29 or on any special agreement made between the employee and the employer upon 30 separation.

31
32 (d) Draws against commissions or bonuses may be recovered from the current or any 33 subsequent pay period until fully reconciled.

34
35 The provisions of this §821.26 adopted to be effective June 1, 1998, 23 TexReg 5732; amended

39
40 §821.27. Loans.

41
42 (a) An employer must comply with §61.018 of the Act and this chapter to recoup a loan
43 the employer made to an employee, unless the loan is an advance under §821.29.
44

- 1 (b) In recouping a loan made to an employee, an employer may count the loan
2 repayment toward any applicable minimum or overtime wages the employer is
3 obligated to pay to the employee.
4
- 5 (c) In recouping a loan made to an employee from any of the employee's paychecks,
6 including the employee's final paycheck, the employer may not withhold or divert
7 more than the agreed amount. The agreed amount is the amount:
8
- 9 (1) identified as the amount to be withheld from any one paycheck in the written 10 loan agreement between the employer and employee; or 11
- 12 (2) otherwise authorized in writing by the employee for repayment of the loan.
13

14 The provisions of this §821.27 adopted to be effective June 1, 1998, 23 TexReg 5732; amended
15 to be effective September 20, 2010, 35 TexReg 8506

16
17 Return to Table of Contents
18

19 §821.28. Deductions.
20

- 21 (a) The Commission provides the following guidance in determining whether an 22 employer is entitled to withhold or divert wages under court order, by law or with 23 written authorization under § 61.018 of the Act:
24
- 25 (1) A court is presumed to be a court of competent jurisdiction with respect to 26 issuing court orders. The burden shall be on the party opposing a court order 27 to challenge the court's authority by appealing to the issuing court or court of 28 appropriate review as the Commission will presume full faith and credit
29 applies to court orders.
30
- 31 (2) State or federal law includes statutes and codes enacted by Congress or the 32 Texas Legislature, rules promulgated by a Texas or federal agency, and 33 regulations promulgated by a Texas or federal agency.
34
- 35 (3) A lawful purpose is one that is authorized, sanctioned, or not forbidden, by 36 law.
37
- 38 (b) Written authorization for deductions shall be specific as to the lawful purpose for 39 which the employee has accepted the responsibility or liability. Written 40 authorizations shall be:
41
- 42 (1) sufficient to give the employee a reasonable expectation of the amount to be 43 withheld from pay; and 44
- 45 (2) a clear indication that the deduction is to be withheld from wages.
46

- 1 (c) If an employer uses a handbook, policy manual or other similar document instead of
2 a separate writing, the employee's signed acknowledgment of receipt of company
3 policies can be authorization to withhold wages if the acknowledgment meets the 4 requirements of subsection (b) of this section and specifically informs the employee
5 of the deduction. The signed acknowledgment of receipt shall also include language
6 that states that the employee agrees to abide by or be bound to the authorization for 7 deduction.
8
- 9 (d) The employer shall ensure that properly withheld wages are applied toward their 10 authorized purpose. Properly withheld wages not applied toward their authorized
11 purpose will be considered unlawful deductions.
12
- 13 (e) The employer shall obtain written authorization as required under the Act to deduct
14 credit card service charges from an employee's tips.
15

20 §821.29. Wage Advances.
21

- 22 (a) A wage advance occurs when an employer advances to an employee a monetary sum
23 that represents wages not yet earned, or wages that have been earned but are not yet
24 due for payment.
25
- 26 (b) An employer may recoup the wage advance from the employee's next regularly 27 scheduled paycheck directly following the advance if:
28
- 29 (1) the employer provides the employee with notice that the amount is an advance 30 that will be recovered from the next paycheck; and 31
- 32 (2) the employee agrees to the amount to be recouped.
33
- 34 (c) If the wage advance is not recouped in the next regularly scheduled paycheck
35 following the advance, the employer shall comply with §61.018 of the Act.
