How to View Your
IRS 1099-G
Information

Tutorial Overview

Unemployment benefits are taxable under federal law.

Paying Taxes on Your Benefits

- You may choose to have TWC withhold federal income tax from your unemployment benefits at a tax rate of 10 percent before we send them to you.
- Withholding taxes is not required.
- In January, TWC sends you the IRS Form 1099-G: Certain Government Payments, Statement for Recipient. This form shows the total amount of benefits paid in the previous calendar year.

This tutorial includes instructions for viewing your Internal Revenue Service (IRS) 1099-G information over the Internet.

You may view:

- TWC's address and federal identification number
- how much income tax was withheld from your unemployment benefits, if any, and
- IRS 1099-G information for prior year(s)

Beware of e-mail scams asking for your Social Security number (SSN), debit card number, or PIN. TWC never asks for your PIN or debit card number, and requests your SSN number only after you make an inquiry. If you receive benefits by debit card from Chase Bank, a Chase representative may call you to verify transactions as part of a fraud detection program. Chase will not ask for your card number or PIN. Do not volunteer that information.

You can apply for unemployment benefits free of charge on ui.texasworkforce.org or at 800-939-6631. TWC unemployment staff does not perform home visits. Give TWC personal information only when applying for benefits online at ui.texasworkforce.org or when calling a Tele-Center.

If you have moved to another state or Canada you need to register for work search assistance in your place of residence at a public workforce office or online. You must register within seven (7) days of moving and continue to meet your required weekly work search activities. TWC will verify that you registered with your state of residence. If you do not register for work search, your benefits may be delayed or denied.

See the list of state Public Workforce Offices for help finding out how to register in your state. PDF files require Adobe Reader for viewing.

VRU TEST-DP, welcome to Unemployment Benefits Services.

Here are your messages:

- You are required to do at least 5 work search activities each week. Check Guidelines for a Productive Work Search \(PDF\) for examples of activities.

If you need further assistance, call a TWC Tele-Center.

IRS 1099-G Details

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) requires you to report your unemployment compensation as income. TWC mails a statement (Form 1099-G) in January containing the total amount of unemployment compensation paid to you and any amount withheld during the last calendar year. This information is available through December 31.

Your Form 1099-G, which gives this information, does not have to be attached to your tax return because TWC reports it directly to the IRS. Keep a copy of your Form 1099-G for your personal records.
