

TEXAS WORKFORCE COMMISSION NOTICE OF ATTENDANCE

The Texas Workforce Commission will attend White Cane Day. The mission of this walk is to educate the world about blindness and how people who are blind or visually impaired can live and work independently while giving back to the communities. This day celebrates the abilities and successes achieved by blind or visually impaired people and honors the many contributions made by them. The event begins at:

10:00 a.m.
Wednesday, October 12, 2016
1100 West 45th Street
Austin, Texas 78756

Andres Alcantar, Chairman and Commissioner Representing the Public; Ruth R. Hughs, Commissioner Representing Employers and Julian Alvarez, Commissioner Representing Labor, may be attending the festivities.
