

Fentanyl Impact in Texas

600%

Increase in fentanyl deaths in Texas in the last five years.¹

1 in 4

Texans have experienced an opioid overdose or know someone who has.¹

45%

Of all drug poisoning deaths last year were related to fentanyl.¹

75%

Of U.S. employers report opioid use has impacted their workplace.²

1 in 10

Employees who die at work die from an overdose.²

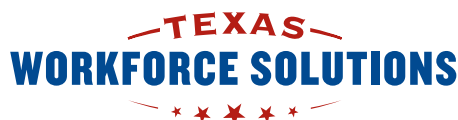

10th

Consecutive year in a row rise in deaths from accidental overdoses, including fentanyl.³

Resources

Naloxone can reverse a fentanyl overdose and save lives.

- If you or someone you know is at risk for opioid overdose, carry Naloxone.
- Texas organizations can request a free, standing order to distribute Naloxone.⁴
- Employers can keep Naloxone on worksites.
- TWC offers resources on Drug Testing in the Workplace. (bit.ly/efte-drugtesting)

A proud partner of the AmericanJobCenter network

Learn more at:
twc.texas.gov/fentanyl

1 Texas Department of State Health Services. dshs.texas.gov. 2023.

2 National Safety Council. nsc.org.

3 U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics. bls.gov. 2024.

4 Naloxone Standing Order Request (txoti.org)